SECURITY

Safe and sound

Family safety is our top priority. That’s why SEAT Accessory child seats are engineered to offer children the maximum protection possible. Adapted to the age and weight of the child, with cushions that don’t put any strain on the head or neck. There are safety belts with multiple anchorage points and iSOFiX systems that attach the seats to the chassis for extra stability and control. They mean more comfort and security for your children, even when driving on the toughest terrains.
